20TH YEAR - NO. 15 | 658-2346 | APRIL 10, 1975 | 364 MIDDLESEX AVE., WILMINGTON | TWENTY CENTS

Dollars, food and drugs for Vietnam orphans

There are organized drives, and there are spontaneous drives. This is the story of a Wilmington woman who collected, with the aid of friends in and out of Wilmington Methodist Church, for a relief effort which was centered in St. Bridgid's Church, in Lexington.

It was, she says, the most exciting forty-eight hours of her life.

Jo Crowell lives up off Hillside Way, in Wilmington, up near the water tower. Last Friday evening she sat at home, watching TV. At 11 p.m. the news came on. There were many persons who watched the news at that time, and who learned of the plight of the orphans in Saigon.

Jo Crowell did something about it. She started the next morning, and she kept going until Monday afternoon - over forty-eight hours. By that time there had been collected twenty-five tons of food, $12 thousand in needed drugs and $$ thousand all in cash, collected and delivered to St. Brigid's Church in Lexington.

It was a tremendous effort, and Jo, for her part, never felt better. It was, she says "so much fun." From Wilmington, over 100 people were involved, many of them from the United Methodist Women.

Jo, because of the Friday night news broadcast, called the Friends for Vietnam Orphans organization. It was in Lexington, in St. Brigid's Church. As the result of what she learned she spent all day Saturday on the phone.

First the manager of DeMoulas Market in Wilmington and the manager of the Supreme Supermarket in Woburn agreed to put out large boxes, to collect baby supplies. There were other stores which were approached, and the managers refused.

Then Jo got the ladies from the United Methodist Women. They volunteered to help Jo. One of the first things they did was to purchase 40 vials of Ampicillan from Choate Memorial Hospital in Woburn. Dr. Francisco, Wilmington physician, delivered the drugs personally.

The New England Memorial Hospital, in Stoneham did its part. Jo's neighbor, Dr. Rolland Sturtevant, is on the staff of that hospital. Several hundred dollars, donated by the Methodist Women were used as a starter to purchase drugs and supplies - ampicillan and intravenuous fluids.

The chief pharmacist of that hospital, Don Cusley, and the purchasing agent, Erwin Cole, got into the act. Thus do things snowball.

one by one people and organizations joined up. Many went to Lexington to help the people in St. Brigid's Church.

Mrs. Crowell recalls the work of Dora Ardolino of Broad Street, and Fran Gamlin of Reading Avenue - and of a sizeable donation from Sweetheart Plastics, packing materials and tapes for packing.

The really exciting part, she says, was in St. Brigid's in Lexington, wher many persons of many faiths were working together.

Large vans were packed by volunteer workers, and sent by truck to the Boston airport, where United Air Lines took the vans to San Francisco. In that city planes of the United States Government took over, and flew the supplies to Saigon, to be used in the orphanages.

"I just want everyone to know," says Joe Crowell, "How much fun it is to be a part of an organization in which everyone is working together to help, and how great people can be."

Chapter 23 of the Immovable Object and the Irresistable Force or is it Chapter 24?

Readers of the Town Crier will recall that some few months ago the Wilmington Selectmen and the Wilmington Planning Board locked horns about an extension of Washington Avenue into a real estate development known as Glen Acres. The planning board required that the developer extend his road through to Washington Avenue, which comes out on Clark Street.

The people of Washington Avenue did not like the idea, or some of them - and they took up the subject with the selectmen, who ruled against connecting the two roads - whereupon the planning board felt that the matter of a road through to Glen Road should be debated in the annual town meeting of 1976 - the first annual town meeting that would be available.

There were other matters too - a pond, dug in a pear area, that exceeded the original estimates for depth, and the matter of providing money to construct the extension for Washington Avenue, if the town should so vote next spring.

The developer was required to put up a sum of money as a bond - if memory serves correctly it was $20,000. Shortly afterwards the developer had financial troubles, and not much has been heard of Glen Acres since then.

Tuesday night there were twenty-two residents of Glen Acres at the planning board meeting, plus two infants. They had a tale of woe, much of it being based on bewilderment about the laws of the Commonwealth, and which board was responsible for what phase of the construction.

Three homes, it seems, have water in the cellars. In one instance the depth was mentioned as being four inches. That was no responsibility of the planning board, and Chairman Harding told of a firm that used to advertise dry cellars, but no longer does so.

There was uncompleted street construction. Harding was told that the developer estimated the work will cost $11,000 - but the developer doesn't have the money at this time. Harding doubted, but did not know, that the work could be done for $11,000.

There are no street lights. There are instances of crime, and no one knows where it is taking place. The noises can be heard at night, but nothing can be seen.

Harding told the people that the status of wiring in the area is not under the jurisdiction of the planning board. That was something that happens between the developer and the Reading Light.

There was the matter of no street signs. That too, Mr. Harding said, was a problem.

The people were very nice, and Mr. Harding was equally nice, but it was a stand-off - except that Harding told them their remarks were being recorded, and there would be an answer, in due time.

JOHN FERRO AND FRIENDS: From Glen Acres, conferring with the Wilmington Planning Board.

Police have property for owners to identify

Wilmington and Weston police, who cooperated in the capture of a pair of housebreakers who had been responsible for thefts in Wilmington, are trying to solve a problem as to who owns some of the stolen property which was recovered. Some of the property found when the house breakers were arrested has been returned, including property to two Wilmington families. Some still has to be identified.

There is, for instance, a set of china, about 25 pieces. It is tan or coffee colored, with gold handles on the cups, and a pink floral design.

There is another set of china, about 15 pieces, white, with roses outlined in gold.

Wilmington residents who had their homes broken into during December of January may be the owners of this property. They should contact Inspector Harvey at the Wilmington Police Station (658-5071) for further information.

Clean Up Meeting next Tuesday

Volunteers for the annual Clean Up campaign for Wilmington, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and the Town of Wilmington, will be meeting in the Public Library next Tuesday, at 7:30 pm.

In addition to officers of the Chamber and town officials there are expected to many volunteers, and members of the Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and Girl Scouts.

President Carl Melander of the Chamber will preside, to be assisted by Highway Superintendent Bob Palmer. There are expected to be changes, due to several factors, and announcements of the changes will be made Tuesday evening. President Melander will also discuss the arrival of materials designed to help individual families in cleaning up their own properties.

TOWN OF WILMINGTON

Clean Up information will be available in full, for the residents of Wilmington, next week.

Please do not call the Town Hall, nor the Town Departments at this time.

A. D. Gillis, Chairman
Board of Selectmen

Wilmington's hen pecked selectmen

Wilmington has a hen pecked board of selectmen. The five men are all gentlemen, who will not raise their voices to a lady, or a person of the female sex, and the consequence is that every time the selectmen have a regular meeting there are a couple of females (or persons, in some people's language) who move in on the deliberations of that board, and tell the selectmen just how and what to think.

There are two points to be made.

1. The selectmen are too good natured to put the ladies in their places.

2. There are others present who would like to hear what the selectmen are saying. Frequently they cannot, for the noise.

Just to make things clear, the persons who are making the noise (cackling might be the right word) are not the representatives of the League of Women Voters of Wilmington. Those ladies are too

1975 State Census starts Monday

The 1975 State Census in Wilmington starts Monday, and residents are being asked to cooperate.

Census counters will be going from home to home, from Monday on, until the census has been completed. All census tallies are planed to have been completed and tallied by the state by June 15.

The 'key' date is March 1. All information received will relate to that date. Several state functions relate to that date, as well as does the local census.

Reduction of the House of Representatives will be based on these tallies. The reduction is to be from 240 to 160 members.

Reimbursement of the schools, of library aid, and of regional health will be based on the results of the census. Statistical information will help control the distribution of monies obrained from the state lottery commission. Many other state functions are also involved.

The work must be completed by June 15, statewide.

Open letter to Senators Brooke and Kennedy

Gentlemen:

I appeal to your humanity, dignity and compassion to help the thousands under communist attack in Southeast Asia. While they begin the exodus that is so familiar to communist takeover in any area, we are yet able to come to their aid. Before the routine execution b3gins of citizens whose religious or free will choice is to serve other than the Red State, there is time to prevent a blood bath.

Contrary to the statements of so many news analysts and far-left college professors, the South Vietnamese have performed successfully without American soldiers, in the defense of their country. Only because of Russian and Chinese military aid are the North Vietnamese regulars able to wage effective aggressive war in South Vietnam. While Communist world powers have the conviction to produce such misery and hardship, we make it our resolve not to help a people in need. What hope was once theirs, because of our solemn pledge to help with military aid, is fast melting.

In the 12th chapter of Luke, verse forty-eight, Christ tells us, "...Unto whomever much is given, of him shall much be required; and to whom men have committed much of them will they ask more." With all that has been given to my country in blessing, I volunteered for military duty in 1966 with the express purpose of going to South Vietnam to aid those in dire need. In a lanc such as ours we find it hard to appreciate the suffering of people who witness their loved ones being murdered or maimed for failing to comply with the will of an insurgent backed by powerful allies. We should not turn our backs to God or to these people at this critical time of crucial need.

The people of Southeast Asian lands are no more deserving of suffering at the hands of a foreign aggressor because of corruption in government than we are. Were a "corrupt government" grounds for withholding aid from these people, there could never be subsidized wheat sales or technological aid to Communist Russia where there has been no free election since the "rule of the Proletariat" began there.

By one act of Congress, the lost lives, hardship and suffering of American soldiers in Southeast Asia are being reduced to nought. The final fate of those still unaccounted for could be sealed in mystery and misery.

To the dead, the missing, and the living, I appeal to your courage and compassion to restore the aid that would allow these people to defend themselves.

Sincerely yours,
Gary D. Phillips

774 recommendations given to planning board

The Wilmington Planning Board has received a number of recommendations from the Thomas Associates of Boston, relative to the proposed low and medium housing scheduled to be erected on the banks of the Ipswich River. The proposal, which has been heard by the Wilmington Board of Appeals, is now under study by that board, for the next two weeks.

Wilmington boards such as the planning board have the right to make certain types of suggestions for the conditions of such erection, and it is with this in mind that the planning board has asked the Thomas Associates, for its thoughts on the matter.

Carol Thomas, of the Thomas Associates, Tuesday night said that there were indications of "serious conflict" with the proposal for Candlewood Village. She was particularly concerned about the laws and policies to protect wetlands and areas subject to flooding.

The applicant, Carol Thomas said, has submitted a plan which is in accord with the provisions of the law, but most of the units are in an area designated by the Department of Housing and Urban Development in Flood Hazard Boundary Map No. H25 017 1492 07, March 1, 1974, as a "special flood hazard area." The lady further reported that a majority of the units proposed were below the "Standard Project Flod" of a boundary, established by the Department of the Army, Corps of Engineers, and shown in a report dated Sept. 1971 - Flood Plain Information, Ipswich River, North REading andReading and Wilmington, Mass.

It was her recommendation that the planning board ask that because of the possible danger, no construction of buildings should be allowed and no filling should occur between the "Standard Project Flood" and the Ipswich River.

Mrs. Thomas noted many conditions which she brought to the attention of the board. Among some of them: She believes the board should recommend fencing of all areas along the Ipswich, to alleviate dangers to children and to the infirm, as shown on Plate 5, of the New England Division, Corps of Engineers, for the Ipswich River.

She thought that there should be assurances against the use of salt, in the proposed driveways and sidewalks, and that sand be used in such a manner as to avoid filling in the river.

It was her recommendation that a sidewalk be constructed, from the entrance of Candlewood Village to Concord Street, and she added that, ideally, another should be constructed to Federal Street.

Were there to be flooding conditions, she asid, the entrance could be blocked off and there would be no entrance to the site for emergency vehicles, particularly for the housing for the elderly.

Noting that the proponents propose a six inch forced sewer main she told the planning board that this did not fit into the town's master plan and would be, in effect, a six inch private utility.

It was her belief that the general public would be inconvenienced by the construction of such a six inch main when it is possible that in the next few years a master plan sewer extension might be constructed.

It was her belief that the master plan for sewers, prepared in 1958 and updated in 1965, should be used - that there be gravity sewers constructed, with pumping facilities, and force mains as needed to meet the projected flow requirements of the areas tributary to Woburn Street as established by the town. The developer should be required to post a bond accordingly, and assurne full financial responsibility for design and construction, she said.

Fire fighting, she said would be inadequate without adequate water supplies. The height of the buildings planned would require more than 1200 gallons a minute at 20 pounds pressure, which is now available. She was of the opinion that 2500 to 3500 gallons per minute be a minimum, at 20 pounds pressure, and that accordingly the planning board should ask for a booster pump and tank of adequate size.

The phasing of the new housing was another subject. The lady recommended that the new housing be "phased in" at a rate of not more than 100 units to be occupied in any calendar year. This, she said, would amount to a maximum increase to be absorbed in a year, or twice the normal construction in the town, or a reasonable housing effort.

She recommended that the planning board request that the maximum height of the buildings be reduced to 38 feet, to conform to town bylaws, which have been designed to obviate the need for equipment to serve greater heights, and an alternative consideration would be possible if the applicant purchase and give to the town adequate fire fighting equipment.

OFF TO CHICAGO: Three Wilmington high school girls will compete in the National OEA Conference, in Chicago, May 10 thru May 14.

Seated are Elaine Freeman and Susan Doucette, and standing is Kathy Kazmeir, with advisor Jean Longo, who will also make the trip.

The Office Education Association (OEA) is a National leadership conference, which this year will be meeting in Chicago from May 10 to May 14.

Over 3000 students are expected to attend. They have been named through a process of elimination at state and regional levels. To climax the year's activities the top office occupations are declared national winners.

OEA provides opportunities for students to develop occupation competencies through twenty four events, ranging from individual stenographic, typing, duplicating, etc to group contests in parliamentary proceedures and chapter applications. First, second and third place awards are made to winners of each event, in secondary and post secondary levels.

well versed in parliamentary procedures to engage in such a noise making exhibit.

Last week was a good example. Ann Whitney, of the Wilmington Spotlighters attended the selectmen's meeting in order to discuss a meeting place for her organization. She didn't get much of a chance. Neither did the selectmen.

Two persons, with no knowledge worthy of the subject, took over. Some selectmen tried to say something, but were unsuccessful. Those who were trying to hear what the selectmen were saying found it impossible.

Those two persons cackled for over ten minutes.

Mrs. Whitney, who was seated at the selectmen's table, never did find out what the selectmen said. She visited the Town Crier office, the next day because she could not understand what the selectmen had been trying to tell her.

Spokesmen cite LRTA benefits

Two spokesmen for the Lowell Regional Transportation Authority (LRTA) and the Northern Middlesex Area Commission (NMAC) stressed the benefits Tewksbury could accruefrom the LRTA at a selectmen's meeting.

During the same session, selectmen voted 3 - 2 to notify the LRTA that the new chairman of selectmen, Joseph J. Whelan, or his designee would represent the town on the LRTA board.

The same vote notified the LRTA that Edward A. Flanagan wouldn't serve as designee for the chairman anymore.

Whelan and selectmen Norman O. Boudreau and Joseph A. McNeil voted for the actions, while selectmen Frank A. Antonelli and Neil Niven Jr. were opposed.

Kurt Schork, assistant director of the NMAC, advised the selectmen a $40,000 NMAC study funded by the Urban Transportation Commission was underway. The study, he said, would be used to get federal funds to improve public transportation in the area.

Schrok stressed a public meeting would be held Monday, April 14 at 7:30 p.m. in Tewksbury town hall to gather suggestions and comments from local residents about public transportation needs.

Once the study is completed, Schrok said, the LRTA could be eligible for state and federal aid not only for capital expenditures, but also for the cost of operating routes.

He said if Tewksbury took service from the LRTA it was conceivable that the town wouldn't have to pay anything for LRTA service for the first five or six years.

The only cost the town would absorb, he said, would be a a percentage of administrative costs reflective of the percentage of overall service that the town accepted.

Paul Martinek, administrator of the LRTA, told selectmen LRTA administrative costs for the current fiscal year were funded for $50,000, but for various reasons would cost $15,000 less than that.

Stressing one example of savings through the LRTA, Martinek said Lowell originally had to pay $625,000 toward the MBTA deficit, but that aid received through the LRTA cut that figure by $250,000 to $300,000.

Martinek said $5 million in aid was earmarked for the Lowell area, plus other funds for capital expenditures and administrative costs.

He predicted Tewksbury eventually would seek services from the LRTA.

Superintendent reports plans

Tewksbury's DPW comes into being

Tewksbury's Department of Public Works officially came into being Saturday, April 5. Only three days later DPW Supt. John Condon presented selectmen, who are the new DPW commissioners, with a plan to streamline DPW services in the coming year.

During the same session, selectmen unanimously named Condon as the town's permanent DPW superintendent. Until that vote on a motion by Selectman Frank A. Antonelli, with Joseph A. McNeil seconding, Condon held the title of temporary DPW superintendent.

Condon's major recommendations would place the town's DPW services under three main branches, administration, operations and engineering.

The administrative branch would perform all accounting and billing operations. The engineering, all survey and location, design and planning and construction inspections.

Four divisions planned

Four divisions would work under the operations branch. These would include a water sewer division, a praks and recreation division, and equipment division and a highway division that would include highway, solid waste disposal,traffic sign, construction maintenance and tree activities.

Condon'a report stressed,

"The objective to organize the independent departments is to eliminate the inefficieney and independent activities of related functions.

"The basic public work functions have been operating quite independently without a unified goal.

Individual departments provided little cooperation and scheduling of activities did not consider other departments' needs or ability to assist or perform some of the related work.

Stresses centralization

"A cohesive organization can be formed under the direction of one department head. The concept of public works is to consolidate the departments into one harmonious structure with a unity of purpose, direction and long range goals.

"Within the limitations of - Civil Service classifications - existing personnel - equipment and vehicles - building and - space availability."

Condon stressed in his report that distribution of personnel at the inception of the DPW organization wasn't critical.

In proposing the four divisions within the operations branch, he stated,

"Changes in the present structure are minor, however, it must be stressed that all employees are now working for one department, Public Works, and as such will be interchanged to accomplish the work required of the individual divisions. Transfer of personnel within the department will provide on-the-job training and remove present barriers to communication and cooperation."

Cites engineering

Reporting on the engineering division, Condon stated,

"Nationally an engineering division is present in 75 per cent of all public works departments. It is the foundation of support for all other divisions. Whether the task be designing highway, water, sewer or park facilities - to the planning and scheduling of projects - to the inspection of all construction - engineering is the basic division essential to the success of all these efforts.

"At the present time, three employees have been hired under the CETA program. The office is located in an area above the Park Division garage.

"To maintain services now being absorbed by this division will require the hiring of additional qualified personne."

Lists services

The engineering division, Condon said, would include the following activities:

1. Field inspection of subdivisions.
2. Preparation of bonds for subdivisions.
3. Establishing a central file for all plans related to roads, subdivisions and properties.
4. Central card file index for plans, deeds, etc.
5. Preparation of work schedules for divisions.
6. Preparation of contract for municipal gas facility.
7. Investigation of drainage problems.
8. Planning for DPW facility.
9. Review road improvement programs such as Arkansas Road, Kendall Road and East Street.

He continued concerning the engineering department,

"Part-time engineering accomplished by consultants has left the town virtually no records. The condition of town roads, community services, water supply, sewage and solid waste disposal problems are reflected in the lack of planning and full-time engineering.

"The most important decision of this Board of Public Works to make is to immediately support a full-time engineering staff to gradually restore order and direction to the maintenance, protection and improvement of the environment in the Town of Tewksbury."

Water sewers tied

Among important water and sewer activities, Condon listed:

1. Award of contract for construction of Well No. 15.
2. Preparation of contract for the installation of pumping station and pumping equipment at Well No. 15.
3. Preparation of an agreement between Andover and Tewksbury for an emergency connection at East Street and Dascomb Road to establish rate of water charges and conditions of emergency.
4. Award of bid to supply eight inch meter to be installed in conjunction with emergency water connection.
5. A hydrogeological study is being considered to evaluate the town's resources to develop its own water supply for their immediate needs.
6. Preparation of a contract for the cleaning of various wells to increase their yield.
7. The acquisition of state-owned wells off Pond Street through legislation to provide additional water for the town is in progress.
8. Negotiations to acquire water from outside sources such as Andover, Lowell, Corps of Engineers and MDC.
9. Investigation of dirty water problem at Northgate and Eastgate roads.

Roads need work

Of the Highway Division, he stated,

"Of some 200 plus miles of road in Tewksbury about one-half of this mileage represents unaccepted roads. Some 40 miles of road are gravel, provide no drainage and are in poor condition. Drainage problems are severe due to lack of facilities to conduct runoff and the generally level terrain. Many roads were improperly constructed and will require complete reconstruction.

"This division will provide the greatest number of functions. Permanent employees formerly in the Tree Dept. have been assigned to this division. In addition, garage personnel and the related maintenance and repairs of all equipment will be under the highway division."

DPW

Later he stressed the highway department should include:

1. Creation of a preventive maintenance center to service all town-owned equipment and vehicles.

2. Review of existing facilities to determine need for sand-salt storage, hydraulic lift, welding and paint shop, location for gas facility and space requirements.

3. Inventory of all roads to determine condition, type of surfacing, drainage, accepted or unaccepted, in order to establish priorities and a five year capital improvement program.

4. Inventory of all sidewalks to develop a sidewalk program considering location of schools, pedestrian traffic, churches and other facilities in establishing a long range construction schedule.

5. Inventory of all equipment and vehicles throughout four divisions to prepare a five year replacement program based on life cycle costs.

Wants overall plan

Condon stated,

"An overall roadway maintenance program with a systematic approach must be prepared. There are numerous roads and subdivisions that have been improperly constructed. Drainage problems are evident everywhere in town. Maintenance of equipment and vehicles is based on daily needs."

Concerning himself with the solid waste problem, Condon reported,

"Presently the town has a contract for municipal pickup of rubbish. A privately operated landfill accepts the town's rubbish and also accepts rubbish from a number of private collectors beyond the limits of the town. Based upon the present rate of fill and the area of the property now being used as a sanitary landfill site the projected life of this disposal area is about two years. This problem may be the most difficult to resolve and should take immediate priority."

Cites parks

Concerning the park division, he stated,

"The maintenance of parks, ballfields, youth center, playgrounds, town common and the installation of recreational equipment, fences, preparation of new areas and scheduling of all activities is performed by this division."

Projects for that department, he stated, should include:

1. Renovation of the youth center. Bid opening for a contract to repair this structure is scheduled for april 15.

2. Facilities for engineering personnel have been provided at the Park Division garage. Funds to install rest rooms for five employees with office space at the garage have been requested in the budget. Construction is scheduled for July.

3. Engineering studies to determine drainage needs, parking areas and improvement of the Livingston Recreational Area.

Wants parks improved

Concon stressed, "More attention should be directed toward the improvement of existing parks and the provisions for family activities should be reviewed. Improvement of the Livingston Street Recreation area can be accomplished by providing surfaced parking facilities, expansion of ballfields and expanding the use of the area."

Of the Water and Sewer Division, he stated,

"This division maintains all facilities related to delivery of water. It includes the maintenance and construction of pumping stations, layout and installation of water mains; repair, installation of and reading of meters; record retention, preparing and billing of water services; the investigation and development of new water sources; and the day to day activities related to providing the town residents with water.

"Expansion of this division must be recognized at this time. The imminent signing of the Lowell-Tewksbury agreement whereby the town will participate in a regional sewage construction program requires the planning process to begin. The creation of a combined Water and Sewer Division initially is logical for two reasons.

Wants departments joined

"One, the user charges for the sewers will be based on water usage, thereby requiring a combined billing for these two services. Secondly, the maintenance inspection and construction of both water and sewer facilities are closely related and the Water Division is capable of performing both these functions.

"Several years of preliminary planning and design of Phase "A" consisting of the sewer main interceptor, two pumping stations, a metering station, and lateral sewers for a total of 11 major contracts at an estimated construction cost of $10 million cannot be lightly disregarded. Inevitably, and conceivably within three years, the construction of Phase "A" will begin.

"it is possible the sewer program could become a primary effort and the need for a separate division identified. Future needs for major water treatment facilities and expansion of the present water supply system may necessitate supervision of these two areas independently of each other at some later date.

Wants billing improved

"The water division maintains approximately 120 miles of underground mains and 6000 individual services to homes, businesses, commercial and industrial plants. Preliminary discussions with a computer consultant indicates that billing intervals are too infrequent. As with all divisions, field and office procedures will be reviewed in more detail but no immediate changes are recommended.

Concerning water services, Condon stated,

"The town has been growing faster than the tapping of adequate water resources necessary to meet demands. Peak demands cannot be met from the existing 14 well stations. Quality of water must be improved by filtration in the near future. Evaluation of the alternatives must be expedited and the town should then proceed with the most viable solution to supply sufficient and clean water to its residents."

Referring to sewer projects, he streessed,

"Construction of Phase "A" - the main interceptor, depends on the completion of the Duck Island Treatment plant in Lowell. Town personnel should be hired to design and supervise the construction of all sewer works to: (1) insure compliance with plans and specifications; (2) have the as-built plans for the location of underground facilities and personal knowledge by field inspection; and (3) save the town about 50 per cent of consulting engineering fees."

Problems stressed

In a general roundup on the DPW, Condon stated,

"A central municipal facility to provide all town vehicles and equipment with regular gas, unleaded gas and diesel fuel should be constructed. An article for the construction and installation of underground tanks, pump island and pumps has been submitted...

"General repairs, tune-ups and major repairs of all town vehicles and equipment should be accomplished at a municipal service center. A preventive maintenance program to reduce costs is essential...

Wants central facility

"A central DPW facility encompassing all divisions is highly desirable. Centralization will improve operating efficiency between divisions. The existing highway garage is inadequate and deficient to consider an addition or improvement to this building...

"All permanent and CETA employees were personally interviewed by me. The capabilities to perform the town work is present. Centralization of offices and personnel will improve communications and promote efficiency.

"Recommendations will be made in the future to eliminate inequities of pay grades within the divisions...

New equipment needed

"Prior to the next budget period, I will prepare an equipment replacement program that will keep maintenance costs at a minimum and recommend replacement based on several factors to achieve life cycle costs...

"A total town wide space needs study is recommended. Existing facilities at the town hall, highway garage, water division, and park division are inadequate. The need to consolidate town offices is evident and this effort can begin

The fifth annual Wilmington Recreation/Invitational Basketball Tournament will wind up tonight at the high school gym with three games on tap. In the opener the Hawks will tap-off against the Lucky Seven in the boy's intermediate final at 6 p.m. The girls take over at seven o'clock when the senior final will pit the Globe Trotters against the Unbeatable Eight. In the finale at 8:30 p.m., the defending men's champion Super-Stars will be challenged by the K of C Club.

The tourney began with earnest last Saturday morning with four games and continued on a daily basis through last night. Divisional championships already determined where the senior boys (Warriors), intermediate girls, junior girls and boys.

Sat. April 5: The Royals whipped the Wild Two's 72 - 26 in a junior girl semi-final encounter. Susan Rowe (20) and Cora Sullivan (12) paced the Royals' onslaught. In the second game of the day, Cro-Mag toppled the Jr. Celtics, 53 - 28 in junior boys action as Chris Nolan pumped in 24 points and his younger brother Scott added 14. Frank Puleo and Tommy DeLetter scored six each for the Celts in a losing cause.

The Warriors slipped past the Crusaders 40 - 32 and the Six Shooters bested the Nomads 56 - 49 in a pair of senior boys games. The Warriors were led by Jim Doyle (11) Bob Aprile (9) and Mike Moore (6) in a well balanced effort. Scott Gordon tookk game high scoring honors tossing in 13 points for the Crusaders while Tony Wood added eight. Steve Woods poured in 21 points to lead the Six-Shooters past the Nomads. Brian Murphy and Don Conlin tossed in 12 and 11 respectively for the losers.

Sun. April 6: The Aces advanced to the intermediate girls final on Wednesday with an easy win over the Wild 1's. The Hawks crushed the Owls, 50 - 21 in an intermediate boys semi-final clash as Dave Staffiere hooped 14 and Jim Marsh and Ted Moran added 10 apiece.

The Warriors captured the senior boys crown with a 54 - 38 triumph over the SixShooters as they overcame a 26 - 25 half time deficit with a 29 - 12 second half advantage. Jim Stewart paced the winners scoring attack with 18 points, ten of which came in the final frame to preserve the win. Bob Aprile added 13 and Jim Doyle chipped in with eight. Dan Burns led the Sixers attack with 10 and Dave McMillan had eight.

In a mens quarter-final encounter, K of C tripped up the Honk, 55 - 42 with a well balanced scoring attack led by Bill Jensen's 14 points. Pat Simmons tossed in 13 and Bill Gustus added 11 for the Honk. The Golden 1's eliminated the Compugraphic quintet 63 - 50 in another mens game with Vin Scifo and Bob Burns leading the way with 17 and 16 points respectively. Mike Hennessey gained game high scoring honors tossing in 20 points for Compugraphic.

Newhouse Builders slipped past the Lucky Ducks, 67 - 64 in overtime to set the stage for Tuesday's mens semi-finals. Bob Walsh's free throw with only eight seconds left in regulation time tied the contest for Newhouse at 57 - 57. Only three seconds earlier Jim Tildsley had put the Ducks ahead 57 - 56. Cliff Clark tallied 21 points for the red and white club, five in the extra frame to lead Coach Newhouse's club to the win. Jim Tildsley took game high scoring honors pumping in 24 points for the Ducks.

Tues. April 8: The Lucky Seven club parlayed some good free throw shooting (5 of 15) to defeat the Pacers, 15 - 9. The Pacers were successful, on only one of 11 charity tosses and there lies the difference. Steve Fearing led the Seven club scoring six points and Bobby Marsi added five. Eddie Olshaw tossed in six for the Pacers, while Chuck Taylor added three.

The K of C quintet ousted the Golden 1's in a mens semi-final encounter, 44 - 36. Both clubs shot very poorly from the free throw line, however the Knights were a little better converting on eight of 24 tosses, while the Golden 1's made only four of 18. Bob Burns poured in 23 to lead the Golden attack. Jim Maxwell and Bob Stewart led the K of C attack scoring 16 and 10 points respectively.

The defending mens champion Super-Stars pulled away from Newhouse, 74 - 54 with Dennis Murphy (22) and Steve Enos (21) leading the way. Cliff Clark and Mike Walsh tossed in 13 each for the Newhouse club.

Wilmington Youth Hockey

Mite A: On Monday, April 7, the Mites bead Medford, 3 - 1. First period action was scoreless with Wilmington getting nine shots to one for Medford.

Jimmy Newhouse opened the scoring in the second period for his first goal with his second coming in the third along with one by Dennis Moran.

medford's only goal came late in the third period. Assists in the goals went to Cunningham, Newhouse and Moran. Wilmington outshot Medford 21 - 4.

The next game will be played against Tewksbury at 4:10 p.m. on Tuesday, April 15.

Mite B (20-7-2): The Mite B's again dominated over league leading South Boston by defeating Southie for the third consecutive time by a score of 2 - 1.

South Boston took the lead early in the first period as they shut out the B's until midway through the second frame when David Fuller, unassisted scored the tying goal. From that point on the B's increased the pressure on South Boston, especially through the centering passes of Kenny Richter and Jimmy Taylor and the defense of Robbie Palmer, Eric Marshall, Keith Dunnett, and Dean Calarusso.

With eight minutes remaining in the game Dave Fuller scored the go-ahead and winning goal, assisted by Robbie Palmer. From that point on back-checking and corner work from Dave Richards, John Robinson, Greg Rogers, Stephen Raso, Peter Oikle and Eric Berger helped contain South Boston.

South Boston mounted an attack on a breakaway shot by the center which was shoulder high on the right hand side of the net, but glove saved by goalie Brian Surrette. This save took the steam out of South Boston and defenseman David Buzzell and Robbie Walden from that point on kept the Wilmington zone clear of South Boston players until the game ended.

In the previous week's encounter the B's soundly defeated Arlington 7 - 0. Dave Fuller scored the game winner early in the first frame assisted by left wing John Robinson.

The game stayed close until the second period when the B's broke it open. Dave Fuller scored again midway through the frame assisted by David Richards and Robbie Palmer. Jimmy Taylor added a tally assisted by Eric Berger and Peter Oikle. David Fuller followed with the hat trick before the period ended, assisted by John Robinson.

In the third frame Greg Rogers scored a pair of goals. The first, unassisted and the second assisted by Stephen Raso. Peter Oikle completed the scoring assisted by Eric Berger and Robbie Walden.

The B's will finish their season next Saturday against Medford at 10:10 a.m.

Sauirt A (22-5-2): The Squirts came up with their second tie of the season, while playing against first place South Boston for the second time this season. The score ended at 4 - 4.

South Boston was the first to score in the first period, but with 3:51 left in the first George Boudreau lifted the puck up into the corner to tie it at 1 - 1. He was assisted by John Cushing. At 2:10 Jeff Stouffer tapped one in with the assist going to Frankie Neward and Billy Robinson.

South Boston came back in the second to tie it at 2 - 2. It stayed that way until the third stanza when South Boston put two more in for a 4 - 2 lead. At 6:11 John Cushing put Wilmington within one, assisted by Chuck McNeil and Jim Conti. With just 3:00 left, Frankie Newark put in the rebound assisted by George Boudreau and Billy Robinson.

The next game, the last of the season will be played at 10:30 on April 12 against Stoneham.

Squirt BI (23-5-1): The Squirt BI's were defeated by Stoneham, 4 - 2. Stoneham opened the scoring at 5:56 of period one with Wilmington tallying with 1:54 left in period two. Ed Harding scored on a centering pass off the goalie's skate.

Stoneham put in three more before the Wilmington offense could get in gear as John LaLiberte scored at 5:36 of period three, from Ed Harding.

Bill Redler was strong in net as he foiled several strong scoring opportunities.

The BI's face Billerica in their final game next Sunday.

Squirt BII: The B-II's, playing alggressive, hard-hitting hockey, topped Burlington, 3 - 1. Billy Barrett's goal broke a 1 - 1 tie and put the Wilmington Squirts out front for the rest of the game.

Richie McHugh scored the initial goal with a close-in snap shot that caught the opposing goalie flat-footed. Brian MacLellan scored the final goal after receiving a pass from Kevin Dicey. Brian took a hard check from the Burlington defenseman, but pure strength kept him on his way to the net where he hit the low post on the goalie's stick side.

The checking line of Barrett, Craig Richards and Mike Kidd put a lot of defensive muscle to the opponents. Mike Kidd killed off a penalty while Richards was in the box for wiping out a Burlington break-away rusher. Ray Taylor and Lane Fraser body-checked and hustled constantly during the game and kept Burlington off balance during their shifts on the ice.

Wilmington youth hockey

The offensive-minded devensive pair of Gerry O'Reilly and Eddie Olson, working with the line of McHugh, Sean Neill and Mark Johnson, all peppered the opposing goalie with slap shots, snap shots, close in wrist shots and long shots from the points. Sten Larson, Ronnie Cahill, Kevin Dicey and Lance Sullivan provided great support for the goalies, Richie Carbone and Peter Gentile.

although Richards and Sullivan were penalized for their rough defensive play, they kept possible goals from being scored against the Wilmington Squirts. Assisting on goals were Neill, Olson, Kidd, Sullivan and Dicey

Pee Wee BII (16-11-2): Wilmington's Pee Wee BII's bowed to Reading I Saturday at the Youth Ice Arena in their 29th season game.

Coach Gunn's boys came on strong in the first period playing some fine hockey. Jamie Shepard lit the lamp early in the first period with help from Mike Moran and Jay Duffy.

The team's further efforts to score went unrewarded however as the score at the end of the game was 3 - 1, with Reading I scoring a goal in each period, one of which appeared to sneak in through a hole in the side of the net.

Wilmington's Pee Wee BII's will take on Burlington this Saturday at the Youth Ice Arena at 12:50 p.m. in their last scheduled season game.

Adult Hockey League

Big W, 6-Bulldogs, 1

Ed Hill's hat trick led the Big W to its win over the Bulldogs and their one point lead over the Jets.

Brian Phillips fired in a late third period goal to spoil substitute goalie Mike Hughes' bid for a shutout.

Benevento Jets, 5-Beavers, 3

There were eight individual goal scorers as the Benevento Jets kept pace with the Big W in a key win over the pesky Beavers.

The Jets had built up a 4 - 1 lead, but the Beavers came back to make it close in the third period. Goalies Jim Newhouse (Jets) and Roy Anderson (Beavers) played strong games.

Blues, 7-Beavers, ¼

The Blues led by Dan Burns (four goals, one assist) took over third place in the standings as they had complete control in their shootout with the Beavers. Doug Fish and Dave York scored for the Beavers.

The two teams will meet once again in a showdown for third place.

Benevento Jets, 12-Big W, 4

The Jets finally took over first place as they completely outskated the Big W in their one-sided win. Gary Irwin and Earl Phillips were the offensive stars as they each had three goals and one assist.

Jim Irwin paced the Big W with a pair of goals. The two teams will meet once more in a make-up contest with first place of the second half at steak. This will also determine the play-off set-up.

Notes budget problems

"The respective departmental budgets were prepared prior to my appointment. Anthough I have been involved to some extent in the budget process the proposed budgets are too broad and specific programs cannot be identified. This may handicap the Board of Public Works to perform essential work during the first year of its operation. However, I will assume full responsibility for providing the board with a comprehensive program for the DPW during the next budget period...

"This is an opportune time to consider the creation of a nucleus of personnel to maintain town buildings. CETA personnel have been identified that can perform carpentry, masonry work, roofing, painting, carpet installation and other work related to the proper maintenance of buildings.

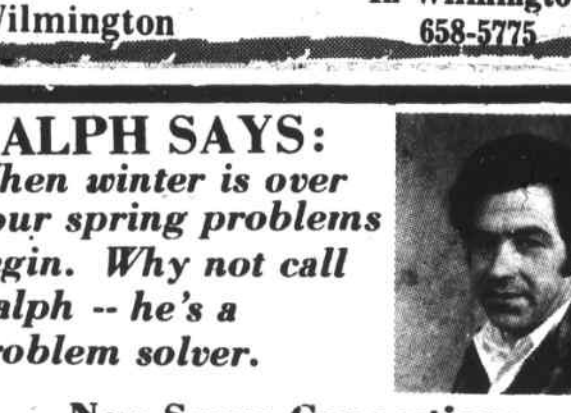

CETA jobs plentiful

Tewksbury now has 70 persons working for town government under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) program.

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS
LAND COURT

(Seal) No. 72651

To Benjiman L. Fairbanks, formerly of Boston, in the County of Suffolk and said Commonwealth, his heirs, devisees or legal representatives; Franklin P. Kimball, formerly of Lowell, in the County of Middlesex and said Commonwealth, his heirs, devisees or legal representatives; Mary F. Kimball, formerly of said Lowell, her heirs, devisees of legal representatives:

GREETING:

Whereas a complaint has been begun against you in our Land Court, by Thomas V. Sullivan and Marilyn J. Sullivan, both of Wilmington, in the County of Middlesex and said Commonwealth.

WE COMMAND YOU, if you intend to make any defense, that on the first Monday of July next, which Monday is July seventh the return day of this subpoena, or within such further time as the law allows, you do cause your written appearance to be entered and your written answer or other lawful pleading to be filed in the office of the recorder of said court at Boston in the County of Suffolk, and further that you defend against said suit according to law, if you intend to make any defense and that you do and receive what the court shall order, adjudge and decree therein.

Hereof fail not, at your peril, as otherwise said suit may be adjudged, and orders and decrees entered therein, in your absence.

The plaintiffs represent that they are the owners of a certain parcel of land, with the buildings thereon, located in Wilmington, in the County of Middlesex and said Commonwealth, being Lots 13, 14, 15, 16 and 17 Olive Street as shown on a plan of land in Wilmington known as "The Mengis Plan," recorded with the Middlesex North District Registry of Deeds, Book of Plans 3A, Plan 42, and in a deed from Colony Home Builders, Inc., dated December 14, 1971, recorded with said Registry of Deeds, in Book 1991, Page 292; and the plaintiffs further represent that the aforesaid lots were sold on July 22, 1912, by the Town of Wilmington for nonpayment of taxes to Henry L. Andrews by deed dated August 1, 1912, recorded on August 14, 1912, in the said Registry of Deeds, in Book 493, Page 306; the plaintiffs further represent that more than two years have elapsed from the date of said sale and no redemption has been made and that the defendants are the only persons who may have any possible right of redemption; and that they have made a due and diligent search for said defendants and have been unable to locate them; and the plaintiffs further represent that they and their predecessors in title have held open, notorious, exclusive and continuous possession of the said premises for a period of over sixty years, adverse to any possible interests of the defendants constituting a cloud on said title; and the plaintiffs pray that the court find and determine that they hold their title to said premises free from all claims of the defendants, having acquired title by adverse possession.

And it appearing to the Court upon the suggestion of the plaintiffs that the whereabouts of the defendants are unknown and they cannot actually be served with process, it is ORDERED that notice be given by publishing a copy of this order once a week for three succesive weeks in the Wilmington Town Crier, a newspaper published in said Wilmington, the last publication to be two months at least before the said first Monday of July next.

Witness, WILLIAM I. RANDALL, Judge of our Land Court, the twenty-sixth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-five.

CAR CORNER

by Bob Bagnulo and Joe Casey

Your carburetor is often the fall guy for engine problems that have really begun elsewhere. Remember this: you will flood your carburetor by prolonged cranking and pumping of your accelerator.

You'll be able to tell this by the strong smell of gasoline. Turn the starter off, and give your car a rest for a few minutes, then try it again.

If the car won't start, your problem may be the ignition. Give your car a chance, don't expece miracles.

You can expect expert service and personal attention from the courteous professional staff at WILMINGTON FORD, 275 Main St., Rt. 38, Wilmington, 658-6800. Our service manager and writers are prepared and equipped to spend the full amount of time necessary to analyze your car's problems, and all our service work is fully guaranteed. Open: sales, 9-10 Mon-Fri; 8-6 Sat; service, 7:30-9 Mon-Fri; 7:30-5 Sat.

The element in the air cleaner should be cleaned or replaced at regular intervals - see your manufacturer's instructions.

Monument planned for Rotary Park

JUNIOR ROTARIANS: Wilmington High School seniors, who spend a month at Rotary luncheons, every Wednesday, as guests of the Wilmington Club. Bill Anderson and John Kaminski will be eating well, for the next few weeks. Of course there are some chores to be done too.

The former cranberry bog of Mrs. Dr. Frances Miller, now a town park, and given to the town by Wilmington Rotary, is to have a monument. The Rotary Club voted $500 yesterday, for such a monument.

The club also voted $100 for the Cancer Fund, and $150 to send a Wilmington youth to Rotary Camp for two weeks this summer.

No. Reading Choral historical celebration

The North Reading Choral Society will celebrate the historical march of the Minutemen to Concord in April, 1775 with a concert of all American music.

Included on the program is music of William Billings from the American Revolution, made eloquent by his personal account of the effects of the war. Popular music of the Civil War, some written by North Reading's own George Root, will be heard.

By contrast, music of the twentieth century composers, Charles Ives, Leonard Bernstein, Alan Hovhaness, etc. will round out this review of musical America. Irene Hofman of North Wilmington will be the alto soloist.

The concert will take place on Sunday, April 20 at 7:30 p.m. at the Union Congregational Church, North Reading. Admission will be free.
